There will be a meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary at the Y. M. C. A. hall Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock; all ladies cordially invited.
Wilbur C. Bingham, clerk at Mr. Bond's clothing store, has been quite sick for two weeks past and is not yet able to resume work.
Night Watchman Dickinson was bitten on the hand the other night by a dog which did not approve of his trying the door of its owner's store.
The steamboat that was put on the river last summer by Messrs. Champagne and Brouillette has been sold to Canadian parties and taken to the Dominion.
Perry R. Fletcher, late of the Polytechnic institute, Boston, has gone to Minneapolis. He intended to engage in the work of surveying railroads in the West.
Mr. and Mrs. Ballou were in town the early part of the week, guests at Mr. Byron Fleming's. They spent the winter in evangelical work in the eastern part of the State.
Wool-buyers are paying 15 cents for fine wool. The farmers who sell at that price think it is perhaps the best they can get, and that they may have to take less later on.
The talk by Prof. Webber, on "Ireland," at the town hall, next Wednesday evening, should not be forgotten. It is certain to be interesting. Tickets are on sale at Hanaford's.
Col. T. M. Chapman arrived home, Wednesday, after an absence of several months. His family remained in New York, whither Mr. Chapman returned yesterday. They will all come to Middlebury next week.
Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Houghton started Tuesday for their new home in Prescott, Arizona. Edward E. Bond has rented their house, South Main street, and moved into it yesterday.

The young men who were trying to get money for the purchase of a hose cart find that the one they want will cost considerably more than was anticipated, but they still hope to be able to procure it.
Mr. John W. Martin does not agree with those who say they never saw an April like that just closing. Fifty-two years ago this spring, he says, the season was as early as this; and that was the year of the great snow-storm on the 15th of May.
The listers have completed the abstract of the grand list as by law required and placed it in the town clerk's office for the inspection of tax-payers. They will meet at that place on Tuesday next to hear objections to their action, if any persons feel aggrieved.

Many of Rev. J. J. Noe's friends and parishioners gathered at the parsonage Wednesday evening, on his return from conference, to express their pleasure over his re-appointment to this charge. He is an able preacher and an estimable man, who has many warm friends outside his congregation.

Miss Cora, daughter of L. C. Bell, and Mrs. Alice Bell were thrown from a buggy at West Salisbury on Thursday afternoon of last week. Miss Bell had an arm broken, besides receiving severe cuts and bruises. She is recovering as rapidly as the nature of her injuries will permit. Mrs. Bell escaped with a few painful bruises.

Mr. Swift of New York, who has been in this vicinity for several weeks, shipped to that city, Monday, a carload of horses purchased hereabouts. John McMann went with them and will remain there during the summer. Mr. Swift also went, and was accompanied by Chas. R. Witherell of Cornwall, with whom he had been staying.

Charles H. Hyde of Rutland was in town Monday night in the interest of the Rutland musical festival, which comes off early in June. An effort will be made to secure an extra train back to Middlebury on at least one evening during the festival. A fine collection of photographs of the principal artists is on exhibition in Hanaford's window.

The Green Mountain Pulp company's mills are being run to their full capacity these days, that at Huntington falls grinding out about 18 tons a day. President Fisher of the company is in town, having lately returned from Florida, where he and Mrs. Fisher spent the winter. Another lot of logs for the mills passed down the creek yesterday.

Easter services at the churches were notable for the beauty of the flowers displayed. The Congregationalists worshipped in the town hall in the morning, their church being all torn up for repairs. The show of flowers at the hall was remarkable on account of the number, rarity and beauty of the plants composing it. They came from Gov. Stewart's greenhouse. At the other churches the decorations were elaborate and tasteful.

The adjutant of Russel Post, G. A. R., sends this for publication: "All citizens interested in the observance of, and who wish to take part in making arrangements for Decoration-day services are respectfully invited to meet Post W. P. Russel at Grand Army hall Monday evening, May 3, at 7:30 o'clock. It is hoped there will be a good attendance. Come and see the new hall, if for nothing more."

Members of the Y. M. C. A. and the Woman's auxiliary should bear in mind the social at the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening. It is held not only with a view to social enjoyment, but that the members of the two organizations may become better acquainted. At the meeting in the rooms Sunday afternoon the hall was filled to its full capacity. Mr. Parsons gave a Bible reading. There was also a Bible reading Wednesday evening. Mr. Parsons has accepted the secretaryship of the association for one year from the first of May.

The Village Improvement association held its annual meeting at the town hall basement on Monday evening. There was not a large attendance. Wainwright, F. A. Bond, Mrs. E. W. Linsley, Mrs. M. H. Eddy, C. D. Mead, Mrs. J. A. Wright, E. Vallette, E. R. Clay, W. W. Eaton, A. J. Marshall, Mrs. Rufus Wainwright, Mrs. J. T. Rich, L. E. Mellen, Miss Emma L. Higley. The treasurer reported funds to the amount of $25.50 in his hands.

Arbor day was not observed in town to any extent, the cold raw wind that prevailed making out-door work unpleasant. Elsewhere in the county something was done. At Orwell Col. W. B. Wright had a number of men out, who set about 100 trees on the common in the village.

A pretty wedding occurred in our village Tuesday, the 27th inst., at the house of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Jackson. Mrs. Jackson's sister, Miss Sadie L. Field, daughter of the late Lottie P. and Aaron Field of Ferrisburgh, was the bride, and Mr. John B. Johnson of Barre, Vt., the groom. A few invited guests had assembled at the house, which had for the occasion been turned by tasteful hands into a wedding bower. In every direction the eye was met with graceful decorations. There was a profusion of flowers, looking beautiful and bright in the morning sunlight. At precisely half-past eight the bridal party entered the parlor. Rev. Mr. Carpenter with the groom preceding the two little maids of honor, dressed in white, Miss Dolly Jackson, the bride's niece, and Miss Miranda Brainerd, daughter of President Brainerd; then followed the bride on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Jackson, who gave her away. After the beautiful service of the Episcopal church, the bride and groom received the congratulations of the assembled guests and then all were invited to partake of a most bountifully-prepared wedding breakfast. The bride was married in travelling dress, and, after breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson took the south-bound train at 10 o'clock.
